Description

A standing Shakyamuni Buddha in fire-gilded bronze, from Ladakh in the Western Himalayas and dating from the 18th century. The figure follows the Himalayan Buddhist tradition and retains a monumental presence despite its size. The bronze has an aged surface with traces of fire gilding, a mineral patina, and natural oxidation. The details of the face, robe, and construction are indicative of an ancient casting. The surface shows wear, abrasions, and localized alterations consistent with its age. The condition is that of an antique bronze with patina and loss of gilding; no cosmetic restoration is noted. Dimensions: height 37.5 cm, width 25.5 cm. Weight: 4.2 kg. Reference: SKU 678.
