Description

Antique rectangular writing desk, likely from the 18th century, made primarily of solid walnut. It features a side drawer with a wooden knob and rests on four slightly tapered square legs with a molded step at the top. The tabletop consists of several joined planks with rounded edges. The structure is assembled using traditional joinery techniques, with wooden dowels visible on the apron and legs. Condition: generally good condition, with signs of use, minor wear, scratches, marks, and imperfections visible in the photos. Dimensions: H. 72 × W. 68.5 × D. 49.5 cm.
