Description

Thabor or monstrance holder made of bronze and gilded brass, with openwork decoration featuring arabesques, leafy scrollwork, and small flowers; on the central section, a motif of multilobed arches frames a silver-plated medallion depicting Christ of the Sacred Heart, surrounded by small flowers set with red-garnet cabochons; it rests on four small round feet and dates from the 19th century. This thabor is in good overall condition. Please note: traces of grime (verdigris), a small crack on a brass stem (see red arrow), a few tiny chips, scratches, and signs of age; see photos.
