600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

A striking oil on panel by Carlo Musso, a Turin-based painter active in the 20th century and particularly renowned for his landscape paintings. Trained at the Accademia Albertina in Turin, Musso devoted a significant portion of his oeuvre to depicting the Piedmontese landscape and the Alps, rendered across the different seasons through a figurative style and a distinctive sensitivity to light and color. The work depicts a sweeping mountain landscape, with trees and fields in the foreground and snow-capped peaks in the background. Signed lower right. In good overall condition, consistent with its age; any marks or imperfections are visible in the photographs.
