Description

???? Pair of vintage cantilever armchairs in rosewood veneer. A beautiful pair of vintage cantilever armchairs with a particularly elegant design, combining the warm curves of rosewood veneer with generous black upholstered seats. Their silhouette is characteristic of cantilever armchairs: the base extends in a continuous line to the armrests, giving the piece a fluid, light, and decidedly modernist look.???? The rosewood veneer reveals a superb brown grain with warm, deep hues. The wide, curved armrests beautifully highlight the wood's natural grain.???? The armchairs have retained their original black tufted fabric, now marked by the passage of time. We made a deliberate choice not to replace it: its wear adds a great deal of charm to the pieces and fully contributes to the authenticity of this pair.????

This patina gives the armchairs a presence that would be lost with a systematic restoration. The fabric therefore shows visible signs of wear in the photographs, which we embrace as an integral part of their history.??? Beyond their aesthetic appeal, these are also exceptionally comfortable armchairs, featuring a wide, generously padded seat and a high, enveloping backrest.??? For those who would nevertheless prefer a fully restored finish, our upholsterer can reupholster the chairs upon request and based on a quote, with the option to choose the new fabric.??? The rosewood veneer also bears various signs of wear--small scuffs and marks of use--visible in the photographs and consistent with the chairs' age.??? Dimensions: 64 × 64 × H 87 cm??? Seat: 52 × 48 cm - H 48 cm??? A pair of cantilever armchairs full of character, combining the beautiful grain of rosewood, a particularly striking modernist silhouette, and the charm of an antique upholstery that has been deliberately preserved.???
