Description

Coffee table with a carved and gilded wooden base, featuring a glass top that highlights the elegance of the underlying structure. The plinth-style legs feature intricate details with leaf motifs, shells, volutes, and curls, which come together harmoniously through a crossbar at the base and swirling leaf carvings. This piece, originating from Italy in the first half of the 20th century, combines elegance and masterful craftsmanship, making it a distinctive feature for both classic and modern interiors seeking a touch of history and artistic design.
