Description

A stunning pair of large matching chandeliers, exquisitely crafted in Italy, dating from the 1950s and 1960s. The chandeliers feature an elegant gilded iron frame, finely shaped with volutes and ornamental motifs, and completely adorned with an extraordinary number of crystal elements of various shapes and sizes. The decoration is particularly lavish: numerous teardrops, pendants, spears, almonds, faceted elements, festoons, and small crystals are arranged along the structure and around the arms, creating an extremely luminous and dramatic effect. The large number of crystals, distributed across multiple levels, gives the two chandeliers a rich, elegant, and particularly grand appearance, with beautiful plays of light when illuminated. The pair features a recently refurbished electrical system, so the chandeliers
