

Large Cobalt-blue And Gilded Bronze Porcelain Vase - Napoleon III Period

2 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 47

Width : 40

Diameter : 27

Description

An elegant and imposing 19th-century French decorative vase, crafted from deep cobalt-blue porcelain and richly adorned with an elaborate gilded bronze mount. The ovoid body is accented by a delicate garland of flowers in gilded bronze, composed of roses and finely modeled small flowers. On either side, spectacular openwork handles featuring volutes, foliage, and fantastical motifs harmoniously frame the porcelain. The neck is encircled by a rich, leaf-patterned border in gilded bronze, while the lower section rests within a frame decorated with acanthus leaves. The entire piece is supported by a finely crafted pedestal, resting on an elegant, architecturally designed base. The contrast between the deep, luminous cobalt blue of the porcelain and the richness of the gilded bronze gives this piece a

Dealer

Mora Antiques

Timeless Antiques with Style - Carefully Selected & Worldwide Shipping

Tel : 0031642510212

Mobile : 0032469115104

Keramiekstraat 28

Bilzen 28 3740

particularly decorative presence. A fine example of French decorative arts from the Napoleon III era, drawing inspiration from the 18th-century ornamental repertoire and, in particular, the Louis XVI style. France, second half of the 19th century. Dimensions: Height: 47 cm Width: 40 cm Depth: 27 cm Beautiful craftsmanship and a striking decorative presence. Short title for Proantic: Large Napoleon III Vase in Cobalt Blue Porcelain and Gilded Bronze - 19th Century