Description

A superb and rare stone holy water font, carved from limestone from the 17th century a very beautiful holy water font featuring a lovely circular basin with a curved profile and lobed relief decoration. The upper portion consists of a wide circular molding, carefully smoothed by time and use. The basin, deep and generously proportioned, rests on a rim carved with gadroons or rounded lobes, giving the piece a particularly harmonious silhouette. Beautiful patina and in superb condition. A highly decorative piece suitable for multiple uses. It can serve as a holy water font, coffee table, planter, or more. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our 2,500 m² showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos
