

Rare Polychrome Tyrolean Devotional Cabinet Dated 1750 - St. Notburga And St. Isidore

1 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 30

Height : 40

Depth : 9

Description

A rare and charming polychrome-painted wooden devotional cabinet--suitable for tabletop or wall mounting--originating from the Alpine region (Tyrol/Bavaria) and precisely dated 1750. The front cornice bears the painted date "1750" alongside the patron's initials "BK," and is surmounted by a shaped crest decorated with a fruit basket and foliate motifs. The two doors feature four painted octagonal panels: the upper left depicts Saint Notburga with the inscription "Heilige Nothburga bitt für uns" (Saint Notburga, pray for us); the upper right depicts Saint Isidore the Farmer with the inscription "Heiliger Isidor bitt für uns" (Saint Isidore, pray for us); and the lower panels display two elegant vases of flowers set against a light background. The sides and

Dealer

La Polvere e i Ricordi

Antique shop

Tel : +390683909734

Mobile : 3385454421

Piazza Vescovio 6a

Roma 00199

edges are embellished with floral decorations featuring red rose garlands on a blue-grey ground. The back retains its original, rare woodblock-printed paper lining, featuring geometric and floral patterns. An authentic piece of Alpine folk art (Volkskunst) from the mid-18th century, in excellent original condition with a beautiful period patina. Characteristics and Dimensions: Period: 1750 (18th century); Origin: Tyrol / Southern Germany; Material: Polychrome-painted wood; Height: 40 cm; Width: 30 cm; Depth: 10 cm; Condition: Very good, original period patina.