Description

Set of three coffee or tea cups with double saucers in "Bavaria" porcelain. This magnificent vintage porcelain line was made in Wiesau, Bavaria, Germany, primarily in the mid- to late-20th century, particularly from the 1950s to the 1970s. Mayer Wiesau, marked "1840," were manufacturers of fine tableware and dinner services with delicate floral motifs. Saucers stamped "Bavaria" Sylvia, Bavarian porcelain and an iconic creation of the prestigious German manufacturer Hutschenreuther (founded in 1814), produced primarily between the 1950s and 1980s. The cups feature elegant, classic shapes enhanced with delicate reliefs and fine gold rims. In perfect condition. Circa 1950-1970.
