

Mathurin Moreau 1822-1919 Bronze "the Spring"

3 800 EUR

Signature : Moreau Mathurin 1822-1912

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Diameter : 32cm

Height : 75 cm

Description

The fountain: A beautiful and substantial bronze piece on a pedestal base with a brown patina, sand-cast around 1870, signed with the "Colin" foundry stamp on the terrace; small verdigris spots on the terrace Mathurin Moreau, born in Dijon on November 18, 1822, and died in Paris on February 14, 1912, was a French sculptor renowned for his decorative works. The son of sculptor Jean-Baptiste-Louis-Joseph Moreau, he studied at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris under Jules Ramet and Auguste Dumont. Winner of the Second Prix de Rome in 1842, he began exhibiting at the Salon in 1848. His works, notably La Liseuse, enjoyed great success during the Second Empire. As a collaborator with the Fonderie du Val, he also provided models to European companies. Mayor of Paris's 19th

Dealer

Y. Laurent Hogommat

Sculpture

Mobile : 0683070180

3 rue de beauregard

Amenucourt 95510

arrondissement from 1879 until his death, he was named a Knight and later an Officer of the Legion of Honor. Avenue Mathurin-Moreau commemorates him today.