Description

A beautiful oil on cardboard depicting a rural landscape featuring a small figure, with trees, hedges, a fence, and open countryside in the background. The work is signed in the lower right corner "Meina Labouverie Chopard" and precisely dated May 25, 1912. Meina Chopard (1872-1938) was a Swiss painter, draftswoman, and engraver. She came from the famous Chopard family: she was the daughter of the watch engraver Paul Virgile Chopard and the niece of Louis-Ulysse Chopard, founder of the House of Chopard. Her body of work includes, in particular, landscapes of Belgium and Switzerland, as well as portraits and studies. This intimate-sized work captivates with its soft, luminous palette and peaceful countryside atmosphere. Very good condition. The matboard
