

Empire-era Potpourri Vase Double As A Candleholder.

2 100 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Diameter : 13.5

Height : 41

Depth : 13.5

Description

A large, reversible potpourri bowl that doubles as a candleholder. It consists of a lidded vase on a pedestal resting on a cylindrical shaft with a latticework design and a square base. The body of the vase is adorned with a bas-relief depicting lyres, Eros, and Bacchus. The reversible lid features a re-engraved design of stylized palmettes and a pinecone handle. Empire period. Minor wear to the gilding.

Dealer

Antiquités Nicolas Catrice

Expert membre de la CNES

Mobile : 680409672

Marcq-en-Baroeul 59700