Miniature Ceremonial Carriage In Gilded Bronze And Polychrome Enamel - 19th Century

5 900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

A miniature ceremonial carriage crafted from finely chiseled and gilded bronze, embellished with polychrome enamel panels depicting figures and foliage in the Renaissance style. The richly architected central body is adorned with enameled panels depicting male and female figures in period costume, surrounded by arabesques and multicolored floral motifs. The entire piece rests on four large openwork wheels, decorated with radiating rosettes, while the chassis features remarkable chisel work. At the front and rear, the decoration continues with fantastical creatures and zoomorphic elements in gilded bronze, accompanied by small caskets and miniature accessories. The upper section is crowned with an openwork design and an elegant finial. A particularly elaborate decorative object,
