

19th Century French Giltwood Violin-shaped Wall Mirror

950 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gilted wood

Description

An elegant French giltwood wall mirror dating from the 19th century, distinguished by its beautifully shaped and softly undulating silhouette. The frame presents a particularly graceful outline, with a rounded upper crest flowing into curved shoulders and gently concave sides before terminating in a rounded lower section. This restrained yet decorative profile gives the mirror a refined character that works equally well in classical and more contemporary interiors.

The moulded wooden frame retains its warm gilt finish, displaying attractive variations in tone, subtle rubbing, small marks and areas of wear consistent with age. These traces contribute to the authentic character and appealing patina of the piece rather than detracting from its decorative quality.

The mirror plate follows the contours of the frame, emphasizing its unusual and elegant form.

The reverse is particularly noteworthy, retaining two substantial wooden back panels with a visibly hand-worked surface and construction characteristic of an antique piece.

A charming decorative mirror of versatile proportions, ideal above a small console, chest of drawers, fireplace surround or incorporated into a gallery wall.
