Description

Lalique crystal perfume spray bottle, "Cactus" model, Art Deco, 1950s. Created by Lalique, this model, known as "Cactus," stands out for its geometric aesthetic and its form inspired by nature, in keeping with the Art Deco style. This spray bottle is characterized by its pressed, frosted crystal body with a honeycomb pattern, accentuated by black dots at the center of the honeycomb-like bubbles, imitating the spines of cacti, and topped with a gilded metal frame and a stylized sprayer. Available in Parisian perfume department stores at the end of the 1940's, this spray bottle is marked "Cristal LALIQUE Paris" beneath the spray nozzle on its original label. Dimensions-> Height with cap: 10 cm-> Overall diameter: 8 cm-> Weight: 300 grams
