Description

A beautiful oil on canvas by Louise Héger, signed and dated "L. Heger 84" (1884) in the lower right corner. A lakeside landscape with a gentle, atmospheric quality, enlivened by a small boat, featuring an expansive sky and the loose brushwork characteristic of late 19th-century Belgian landscape painting. Dimensions of the artwork: 34.5 × 54.5 cm. Dimensions with frame: 60 × 80 cm. Louise Héger (1839-1933) was a Belgian painter specializing in landscapes. A student of Paul Lauters, she began painting en plein air at an early age and frequented the artistic circles associated with Tervueren. In 1883, she joined Alfred Stevens's women's studio in Paris, which helped her painting evolve toward a freer and more luminous style. She exhibited notably at the Paris Salon and painted numerous landscapes,
