Description

"Fish" Sculptural Lamp - P. Granchi - Gold-Glazed Ceramic - 20th-Century Design An original and highly decorative table lamp signed by P. Granchi, featuring a large, stylized sculpture in the shape of a fish. The body, designed in a decidedly decorative and modernist style, combines ceramic with a glossy gold glaze with large fins sculpted in darker tones, creating a beautiful contrast. The golden surface has a deliberately irregular and textured appearance that catches the light particularly well. The sculpture rests on a rectangular wooden base, bearing a metal plaque on the front marked "P. GRANCHI". The gold-plated metal electrical fixture is offset toward the back of the sculpture and supports a large, slightly conical lampshade covered in light beige fabric. A spectacular and
