Description

Ferdinand BARBEDIENNE (Paris, 1810-1892): Handheld candlestick in bronze and polychrome enamel - Orientalist design Elegant handheld candlestick in bronze and polychrome enamel, featuring a rich floral design of Oriental inspiration. The circular bowl is entirely adorned with enamel decoration in particularly vibrant colors: turquoise blue, cobalt blue, red, green, and yellow, arranged in floral and foliage motifs within geometric panels. In the center stands a tall, similarly enameled vase, featuring the same decorative motifs. The openwork bronze handle on the side, finished with a trefoil motif, allows for easy transport of the candlestick. The reverse side, left in bronze, features an antique patina with some traces of oxidation, visible in the photographs. A beautiful decorative object,
