Description

Magnificent Art Nouveau vase with a flattened body and flared neck, made of acid-etched glass from Daum in Nancy. Stunning design depicting a rural landscape with a river and mountains in the background, crafted from acid-etched glass and finely enameled on a marbled sky-blue, green, and orange background. It is signed near the base in enamel with "Daum Nancy," along with the Cross of Lorraine and the master glassmaker's initials. Magnificent colors and a very beautiful shape! Height: 10 cm. Width: 8 cm. Perfect condition. No cracks, no chips, no missing enamel. Small brown line in the original glass body. Very secure shipping available worldwide.
