Description

Pair of large Jansen-style coffee tables - Polychrome wood and tempered glass - 1970sA very elegant pair of large coffee tables, Jansen style, dating from the 1970s.They feature a remarkable polychrome wooden base, decorated with fluting and embellished with carved elements and legs elegantly finished in scrolls. The polychrome finish, in shades of green, gold, and patina, lends the set a great deal of character and evokes the iconic neoclassical designs of 1970s interior decor.Each table is equipped with two tempered glass tops: a large rectangular top and a lower shelf, allowing the particularly intricate architecture of the base to be fully appreciated.The combination of glass and polychrome wood gives these tables a look that is at once refined, decorative, and airy.With their
