Description

This elegant vintage Art Deco-style dressing table, dating from the 1950s, stands out for its extensive use of mirrors. It rests on four curved wooden legs and features a top and front panel adorned with mirrors and beveled glass. The upper section consists of a hinged triptych mirror, with the two side panels able to be adjusted. The scroll-cut edges and decorative bevels lend the piece a great deal of elegance. The front features two side drawers fitted with faceted glass knobs. This is a highly decorative and functional piece, suitable for a bedroom, walk-in closet, or bathroom with character. The piece is in excellent overall condition. Dimensions: H115 x W87 x D47 Height of the table alone: 70
