Description

An elegant Louis XV-style walnut secretary desk dating from the 19th century. The piece rests on four curved legs and features a curvilinear front typical of the Louis XV style. The upper section opens with a flap that forms a writing desk, lined on the inside with antique black upholstery edged with gilded trim. The interior reveals a workspace fitted with small drawers, compartments, and storage sections. The lower section includes two small drawers and one large drawer, adorned with decorative brass hardware and handles. Beautiful antique patina. Dimensions: H94 x W83 x D44
