Description

Louis XVI-style desk with satin-finished wood marquetry from the late 19th century. Restored in our workshop and in perfect condition. It features elegant marquetry with a geometric design, highlighted by thin framing moldings. Its top is covered in leather, providing a beautiful work surface. It features several drawers on the front, adorned with gilded bronze handles and keyholes. The tapered legs and feet, adorned with decorative bronze fittings, are characteristic of the Louis XVI style. A refined and elegant piece of furniture, perfectly suited for a classic interior or a distinctive office.
