Description

Charming Transition-style chest of drawers with a stepped top. Elegant 20th-century craftsmanship. Magnificent original speckled breccia marble top. Refined decoration featuring frieze marquetry (geometric four-leaf motifs on the sides) and rosewood veneer. It opens with two drawers at the front. The key is included and functional. Rich original bronze hardware, including ribbon and garland motifs, lock plates, pull rings, and foot caps on the front legs. It rests on a delicately curved base. Perfectly stable. Its compact size makes it an ideal accent piece for an entryway, living room, or bedroom. It is in very good overall condition, showing normal signs of use and well-preserved. e to contact me for more information, and add us to your favorites to stay updated on our latest arrivals!
