Description

A Burmese bronze Buddha, crafted in the Mandalay tradition in the 19th century. The figure retains a ritual finish combining layers of lacquer, ground preparation, and gilding with gold leaf--characteristics typical of Burmese devotional bronze images. The surface displays an antique patina and wear consistent with prolonged religious use. The reverse retains its original ritual seal, a feature documented during the examination of the object. Cast bronze with a polychrome finish and antique gilding. Traces of wear on the gilding and the surface have been preserved; no cosmetic restoration has been performed. Height: 48 cm. Width: 36 cm. Weight: approximately 10 kg. Reference / SKU: 159.
