Description

Vintage icebox--a 1950s-era bistro refrigerator. PICTET brand. We chose not to perform a complete restoration because its original condition, with the imperfections we'll mention, is full of charm! 1/ The finish has been thoroughly cleaned and revived with a specialized product. 2/ All chrome parts were removed for a deep clean (some chrome is missing). 3/ The interior is in very good condition considering its age. Chip in the plastic on one door. Chip in the paint and a crack. Very clean and odor-free. Wooden shelves that are easily removable and height-adjustable. 4/ Missing veneer on the lower left side. 5/ Currently without refrigeration function; intended solely for condiments or dishes. All restoration work can be performed by our workshops upon request DELIVERY IN
