Description

Carved and gilded wooden mirror. Made in France. Circa 1870. Dimensions Height 112 cm Width 66 cm Description A spectacular mirror from the Napoleon III period, a true manifestation of the Second Empire's Neo-Rococo style. Its free-flowing, dynamic silhouette, inspired by the Louis XV style, features a theatrical design of openwork volutes, shells, and acanthus leaves executed with great virtuosity. The intricately carved design captures the light thanks to its original gilding, with its warm, deep tones, revealing the full richness of the relief. The period beveled mirror enhances the elegance and authenticity of the piece. A piece with character, ideal for defining a space: above a fireplace, in an entryway, a reception room, or a hospitality project seeking a strong, sophisticated, and
