2 400 EUR

Signature : E. Galle

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Height : 41,5

Description

The vase is decorated with blue and purple columbines (Aquilegia) and foliage, etched in relief on a background of delicately shaded yellow and opalescent white glass. Its slender, baluster-shaped body rises from a circular pedestal and extends into a slightly flared neck. The naturalistic floral composition and the multi-layered acid-etched decoration are characteristic of Gallé's production in Nancy during the early decades of the 20th century, a period during which the studio continued Émile Gallé's Art Nouveau style after his death in 1904. Signed "Gallé" within the design. Height: 41.5 cm Origin: Nancy, France Technique: acid-etched multilayered glass Condition: Good overall condition, with normal signs of age and use. The base may have been ground or polished;
