Description

Small Art Deco chest of drawers in black lacquer France, circa 1930. Art Deco chest of drawers with four drawers and stepped sides, resting on a low base. The black lacquered body is topped with its original Brèche d'Alep marble top. The long metal handles are nickel-plated. Height: 87 cm | Width: 88 cm | Depth: 48 cm A geometric composition featuring contrasting materials The compact silhouette of this chest of drawers is distinguished by its stepped sides and base. The four horizontal handles add rhythm to its black lacquered front. Above, the light veins of the marble enliven the dark surface of the top. The contrast between the lacquer, stone, and metal gives this French piece its Art Deco character. Its four drawers also provide practical storage space.
