Description

Description :An elegant French crystal ring dish by Lalique, featuring a charming frosted sparrow perched at the center of a shallow circular clear crystal dish. The contrast between the transparent polished crystal and the softly satin-finished bird is characteristic of Lalique's celebrated approach to decorative crystal, combining naturalistic subjects with refined sculptural forms. The sparrow is modeled with outstretched wings and delicately rendered plumage, creating a lively three-dimensional silhouette when viewed from different angles. It rises from a small molded clear crystal pedestal at the center of the dish, while the gently raised circular rim provides a practical surface for holding rings, earrings, pins or other small pieces of jewelry. The underside bears the script "Lalique France" signature,
