

Neoclassical Bell-shaped Hallway Lantern With A Blown-glass Smoke Diffuser

550 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 25cm

Height : 43cm

Description

Blown-glass lantern, consisting of a bell-shaped structure and a smoke vent. Neoclassical Louis XVI style, early 20th century. Ideal for an entrance hall (in a castle or mansion) or a hallway, this type of elegant lantern is hard to find. A beautiful, charming piece, perfect for a country home. In very good condition, with working electrical wiring. Total diameter: 25 cm. Lantern height: 43 cm, including the adjustable chain at the top.

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000