Description

A charming little silent table server, or table set for condiments such as salt, pepper, and mustard, resting on a three-lobed turned and stained wooden base--in a blackened or ebonized finish--inspired by the Napoleon III style. The set features a central handle for easy transport and three circular openings holding its cut-glass components: A jar with a faceted lid, accompanied by a small wooden spoon. Two small open bowls with scalloped edges, resting on a pedestal with a star-shaped carved decoration. A charming display piece and tableware item, ideal for complementing a period-style table or a collection of tableware sets. Napoleon III period, circa 1870. In good overall condition - Careful shipping; tracked package within 24-48 hours - In-store pickup available in the Paris region-
