Description

Bar cabinet from the "Europ" series designed by Pieter de Bruyne for V-Form. Rosewood bar cabinet on a metal base, featuring a contoured metal bar on top and cylindrical T-shaped handles. The unit features an upper, illuminated bar area with a drop-down door, an interior lining of maple wood, a glass shelf, and a mirrored back panel. The lower section features 4 compartments offering ample storage space. 124 cm wide, 40 cm deep, and 120 cm high. Interior dimensions of the upper section's legs: 118 cm wide and 45 cm high. Interior dimensions of the lower section's legs: 118 cm wide and 35 cm high. This sideboard was restored by our workshop. It shows slight signs of wear due to its age and use; the left runner of the barge-shaped section is missing. Belgian design from the early 1960s.
