Description

- A large painted canvas depicting fishermen returning from a fishing trip, a work from the late 19th century. - This large painting with a nautical theme offers us a panoramic view of a coastline bustling with fishermen. This sweeping view takes in (from left to right) a picturesque town whose entrance is marked by a lighthouse-like tower, a mountainous backdrop, and a maritime scene where boats and canals near the shore navigate through choppy waters while fishermen haul in their nets and unload their boat onto the dock under a cloudy sky. - Oil on canvas, re-stretched and originally mounted in a wooden frame; a late 19th-century work. - Craquelure and missing areas are present (see photos) - Dimensions / Width: 383.5 cm, Height: 173 cm
