Description

A pair of decorative, neoclassical-inspired obelisks carved from Portor marble, characterized by its deep black background crisscrossed with irregular veins in shades of golden yellow and white, giving each piece a unique natural pattern. Each obelisk features a pyramidal shaft with balanced proportions, resting on an imposing square base with stepped edges. The richness and uniqueness of the veining give each piece a one-of-a-kind mineral-like appearance, H 55 x W 14 x D 14 cm Weight 22 kg
