

Rare Boxwood Plane From A Woodworking Shop, Second Half Of The 19th Century P. Hénin Collect

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 9 cm

Description

Rare luthier's horn-shaped boxwood plane. Beautiful period blade; the wedge is embellished with a lily and small stars, and initials are present. The blade bears the surnames: "C.FRANTZ" and "L.HELD." From the Pierre Henin collection, the most important in France for folk art. See the book La passion du savoir-faire: La collection de Pierre Hénin. Length: 9 cm

Dealer

Antichità Poliarts

Antiques irons, doors and high-end objects

Tel : +39(0) 286 452 227

Mobile : +39 3333055542

Via vigevano 33

Milano 20144