Description

A charming set of four Directoire-style armchairs in almond-green lacquered wood with pale ochre accents. The back legs are saber-shaped, while the front legs are tapered balusters. The joining blocks feature a pretty design of stylized florets. The trapezoidal backrests curve outward. The upholstery and fabric are in very good condition. Note: there is some wear to the paint, which lends it undeniable charm. Beautiful craftsmanship from the late 19th-early 20th century. This set can be sold as two separate pairs. Dimensions: Backrest height: 89 cm Seat height: 49 cm Depth: 61 cm Seat width: 57 cm Please contact us for shipping costs via carrier.
