Description

Located in Erbalunga, Corsica, this beautiful painting depicts a Mediterranean view of the village and its harbor, with a small chapel topped by a dome and surrounded by cypress trees in the foreground. In the background, the Corsican mountains stand out against a soft light. The artist sensitively captures the atmosphere of Erbalunga through an expressive painting style and generous use of paint, creating a beautiful harmony of blues, greens, pinks, and ochres. The reflections on the water and the light of the landscape lend the composition great depth and charm. A luminous and decorative work depicting an iconic Corsican landscape. Artist: Tony Cardella Technique: Oil on panel Signature: Signed lower left Dimensions: 92 × 60.5 cm Period: 20th century Subject: Erbalunga,
