Description

A superb chest of drawers bearing two stamps by André-Antoine Lardin (1724-1790, admitted as a master in 1750) and a guild hallmark. Transitional style, 18th century (circa 1760). A very fine example of a Transition-period chest of drawers featuring wood marquetry. Made of rosewood and walnut veneers. The chest features five drawers arranged in three rows across the front, with visible crossbars. Drawers and back panel in oak. The chest of drawers retains its original marble top, which is intact. In perfect condition with a magnificent patina. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. On view in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium.
