Description

A very elegant cushion made from stunning vintage damask silk , with a delicately shimmering silver background, adorned with a magnificent floral pattern in rich shades of raspberry. The design, featuring large flowers, foliage, and stylized bouquets, strikes a beautiful balance between the understated background and the intensity of the raspberry hue. The damask subtly reveals its texture and sheen as it moves, lending the piece great depth and refinement. The cushion is generously stuffed and measures a substantial 18 cm in thickness, giving it a particularly comfortable and elegant look. The back is made from a lovely solid raspberry-colored fabric, chosen to harmonize perfectly with the front's design. A charming piece that will look equally at home on a sofa, an
