

Belle époque Brooch In Gold, Platinum, Pearls, And Diamonds

1 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Length : 8.9 cm

Description

An elegant brooch from the Belle Époque period, crafted in 18-karat gold and adorned on the front with a finely openwork platinum design. The symmetrical design is centered around a pearl and embellished with 49 diamonds of varying sizes, set within a delicate network of foliage and scrollwork. The reverse features a gold setting with engraved decoration as well as an antique pin mechanism. No hallmarks are present; however, the metal has been chemically tested and confirmed to be 18-karat gold and platinum. Details: Period: Belle Époque, circa 1900; Materials: 18-karat gold, platinum, pearl, diamonds; Stones: 49 diamonds of various sizes; Length: 8.9 cm; Weight: 8.1 g, Hallmarks: no visible fineness marks, Testing: metals chemically tested, Condition: slight signs of wear,

Dealer

Art Classique

curiosités, art premier et Asiatique

Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740

good overall condition.