

19th-century Victorian Three-seater Brown Leather Chesterfield Sofa

6 750 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Leather

Width : 205

Height : 78

Depth : 91

Description

Superb Quality Late 19th-Century Brown Leather 3-Seater Chesterfield Sofa
A stunning late 19th-century Victorian three-seater brown leather Chesterfield sofa with three loose feather-filled cushions, raised on bun feet. It features individually hand-tacked brass studs, and the padding is the original horsehair. This Chesterfield is a fine example of high quality with an excellent patina. The original golden brown leather has been cleaned and polished, giving it a beautifully soft and sumptuous feel. The sofa features a fully buttoned scroll-back design and armrests, with superb quality throughout. Upholstered in high-quality leather and traditionally hand-dyed, this sofa remains in excellent condition. With its beautifully curved arms, generous proportions, and classic profile, it

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

makes a bold statement in any interior. The hand-dyed tan leather features a stunning patina and rich finish, adding great character and showcasing fine craftsmanship. Built to stand the test of time, this sofa offers both comfort and style, combining timeless design with vintage charm. It brings instant luxury and sophistication to any room and has a rare, highly desirable presence. A very heavy, solid piece, it clearly reflects its quality and durability. The seat height of the sofa is 50 cm.