Description

French Art Nouveau box from the early 1900s, made of inlaid wood. It features a rectangular structure with a domed and contoured lid, embellished with a beautiful briar veneer featuring particularly decorative grain patterns. At the center of the lid is an elegant ornamental motif composed of stylized leaves and plant elements, crafted from woods of different hues, in keeping with the typical decorative style of the era. The front and sides echo the lid's decoration with additional inlaid floral motifs. Origin: France Period: early 1900s Style: Art Nouveau Dimensions: 26x16x11h cm SKU: 17548
