Description

An elegant, fine-crafted Napoleon III-era tablet box, resting on four gilded bronze ball feet. It is made from ebony-veneered wood and adorned with lacquer panels imitating red tortoiseshell, accented by borders of chiseled and gilded bronze. Corners are inlaid from bone. The recessed lid is topped by a turned bone knob, surrounded by four bronze or brass petals. Inside and bottom are lined from fabric. An object as unusual as it is luxurious, preserved in good overall condition, though with noticeable wear on inside velvet lining.
