Description

Small table or side table made of lacquer and bamboo by the brand "Perret et Vibert" (brand name on the side) Messrs. Perret and Vibert went into business together in 1894 to design and market furniture for winter gardens and verandas. The company, located at 30 Rue du 4 Septembre in Paris, was named "Maison des Bambous" and would attract a prestigious clientele, from Empress Eugénie to the Prince of Wales--notably for his yacht, the Britannia. They participated in numerous trade shows and World's Fairs and exported their creations worldwide. This small serving table shows signs of use, with a few scratches on the lacquer and peeling straw on the bottom shelf. Delivery available in Paris.
