Description

Folk art sculpture depicting an eagle with outstretched wings, finely carved and incised. The eagle, traditionally associated with power, freedom, and elevation, holds an important place in many cultures. Beautiful brown patina, feathers rendered in a scaled pattern, and a base decorated with engraved plant motifs. The reverse bears various handwritten inscriptions: "Edith Roumame", "29.5.88," as well as an engraved mark reading "16 / VIII". Unique piece. Height: 29 cm - Careful shipping via tracked package within 24/48 hours - In-store pickup available in the Paris region - Payment methods: Credit card, bank transfer, or PayPal
