Description

Candy jar or lidded jar made of glazed stoneware, round and flattened in shape, decorated with drips and flame marks in a beautiful palette of ochre yellow, brown, honey, and green.The slightly domed lid is topped with a scalloped handle-shaped knob, characteristic of the decorative style of Charles Gréber's work. The running glazes form a spontaneous and nuanced design across the entire piece.The base bears an incised signature "C. Gréber."French piece, circa 1910-1925.Very fine quality stoneware and glaze, with a particularly interesting antique patina.Dimensions : diameter 12 cm - height approximately 8 cm.In perfect condition.Carefully and securely packaged. Fast shipping with insurance and tracking.
