Description

Antique wooden and gilded stucco frame in the Louis XIV style from the 19th century - Rich ornamental decoration A very beautiful antique wooden and gilded stucco frame, featuring rich, particularly decorative relief ornamentation. The wide border is enlivened by an elegant design of foliage, scrolls, flowers, and stylized motifs, accented by generous acanthus leaves in the corners. The piece as a whole showcases beautiful carving and molding, enhanced by antique gilding with a warm patina. The interior is accentuated by several successive moldings, including a delicate decorative frieze, giving the frame great depth and character. A very beautiful frame, ideal for holding an antique painting, a portrait, or an oil on canvas or panel, and which can also be used as a decorative piece. The frame
